Your invitation to Parliament

When the new speaker of the house, The Right Honourable Trevor Mallard, removed the name of Jesus Christ from the Parliamentary prayer upon taking office, it was done without notice or apparent consultation.

The prayer is to acknowledge that those in Parliament are not the highest authority, but are there to serve the people under a higher authority – Almighty God through Jesus Christ.

The decision made by the speaker to exclude Jesus Christ from the prayer in such an underhanded way demanded an immediate and emphatic response from the church.

Is this the legacy we want our children and children's children to inherit – Jesus Christ out, Trevor Mallard in? As believers how can we remain silent? Silence will only affirm and validate his decision. If the church doesn't rise to be the voice of conscience in the nation, then who will?

We will bring a strong and clear message that actually, many New Zealanders, not just the church, do not agree with what has been done, nor how it was done. We will be asking, in no uncertain terms, that the name of Jesus Christ be reinstated to the Parliamentary prayer.

We will be noticed. That is why you need to be there. That is why we all need to be there! We are expecting not hundreds, but thousands to gather. This will be a gathering of church and community.

Come, let's make our voice and our presence known in our nation. It is said that evil abounds when good men do nothing. Well, that's about to change!

30th October, 12pm, Parliament grounds.

THERE!
